

La Paz, Bolivia
1 July, 2026

Subject: Invitation to the 2026 Extraordinary General Meeting in Santa Cruz, Bolivia

Dear ANNA Members and Partners,

It is with great pleasure that Entidad de Depósito de Valores de Bolivia S.A., extends this formal invitation to the upcoming ANNA Meets the Market event that alongside the Extraordinary General Meeting (EGM) taking place from the 2nd to the 4th of December 2026 in Santa Cruz, Bolivia.

These events serve as a vital platform for discussing key strategic matters, reviewing proposed resolutions, and aligning with the Association's future direction and regulatory obligations. We are pleased to extend this official invitation to all valued Members and Partners to participate in both the formal proceedings of the EGM and the enriching networking activities surrounding the event.

In addition to the formal session, the following events will be organized to enhance your experience and foster meaningful connections:

- A Welcome Reception
- A Formal Dinner
- A Guided Cultural Experience Tour

We are confident that your participation will contribute to fruitful discussions and add great value to this important gathering.

Further details regarding the registration, venue, and agenda, will be shared with you via the ANNA Secretariat.

In the meantime, please mark your calendar for this special occasion. We look forward to welcoming you to Bolivia and sharing this meaningful event with you.

Sincerely,

Oscar Crespo Erid
CEO Entidad de Depósito de Valores

